

While the employee has to change his place of residence within a limited period of time, RELOCATIONone takes care of his property at his home town.

This includes:

- Determining a realistic rental price (market research)
- Search for a suitable tenant by means of one or two estate agents
- Consultation on conclusion of a lease agreement
- Hand over of the property
- Information to utilities
- regular control of the property during the lease period, regular reporting
- Being the person to contact for the tenant and the landlord during the lease period